Art Unit: 1615

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 20, 22 and 29-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for carrier compounds wherein Ar has particular substituents, does not reasonably provide enablement for any substituted phenyl or naphthyl. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. Applicants' disclosure does not provide a basis to support claims directed to any substituted phenyl or naphthyl in claims 20 and 44. No guidance is given for determining what substituents would be included and excluded by such a broad disclosure. Claims broadly reciting substituted in the absence of the particular substituents are not commensurate in scope with the disclosure.

Claims 21 and 23-28 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-19 have been canceled.

Claims 20, 22 and 29-46 are rejected.
